

Sustainable Water for Southern Arizona: Current Conditions and Future Prospects

Friday, November 6, 2015 • 7:30 am – 11:00 am
Leo Rich Theater at the Tucson Convention Center

AGENDA

7:30 am • Registration and Continental Breakfast
(Courtesy of SALC and SAWUA)

8:00-8:10 am • Welcome: Lisa Atkins,
President, Central Arizona Project Board of Directors

8:10-8:30 am • Keynote Speaker: Tom Buschatzke,
Director, Arizona Department of Water Resources

8:30-10:00 am • Panel and Discussion
Moderator: Sharon Megdal, Director, Water Resources Research Center, University of Arizona, College of Agriculture and Life Sciences

BKW Farms, Brian Wong, President
Agriculture, Water and Local Partnerships

Central Arizona Project, Marie Pearthree, Deputy General Manager
Strategic Initiatives and Public Policy

Preparation for Shortage and Impacts on Southern Arizona

Community Water Coalition, Karilyn Roach, Coordinator

Pima County, Julia Fonseca, Environmental Planning Manager,
Office of Sustainability and Conservation
Water for the Environment

Southern Arizona Water Users Association, Warren Tenney, President
Regional Water Cooperation

Tucson Regional Water Coalition, Kip Volpe, Co-Chair
Water Resources and the Economy

Tucson Water, Albert Elias, Acting Director and Assistant City Manager
Water for the Future

10:00-11:00 am • Questions and Answers

Please RSVP at wrrc@email.arizona.edu or (520) 621-4311