

Nov. 4, 2021

Remediation Workshop in Phoenix, AZ

Thursday, November 4, 2021

8:00am - 2:00pm

Venue:

Lumberjaxes Axe Throwing
3105 South Fair Lane #100
Tempe, AZ 85282

Scott Green, AZ Dept. of Environmental Quality
Voluntary Remediation Program Perspective on the Importance of the Field Scientist

Daniel Sola, AZ Dept. of Environmental Quality
Voluntary Remediation Program Perspective on the Importance of the Field Scientist

Ingrid Patman
A Single Solution for a Variety of Contaminants

Steffan Griepke, TerraTherm
Thermal Remediation for Treatment of PFAS Source Areas

Matt Narter, Ph.D.,
AZ. Dept. of Environmental Quality
ADEQ's Use of the Triad Approach for PFAS Assessment and Cleanup

John Fontana, Vista GeoScience
Using the Ultra-Violet Optical Image/ Hydraulic Profiler Tool (OiHPT-UV) to Create 3D Conceptual Site Models (CSM) of Complex LNAPL Migration

Patrick Paul, Snell & Wilmer
Biden's Environmental Agenda, So Far

Jay Zandell, Overley's
Final Words

Please stay after the workshop ends & join us from 2-4pm for ax-throwing!

Register now!

This workshop is free of charge but registration is required.
enviroworkshops.com

Scan QR code with your phone's camera & register online!

Please bring clothing or other items to support André House, and bring canned goods for St. Mary's Food Bank. Also, bring some cash for our raffle & support the EPAZ, AHS & SAEMS scholarship funds.

